

Extract of CAVB Competition Regulations – For participants

I – composition of the Delegation

According to the CAVB Regulations each delegation can be composed up to 20 persons as follows:

Team manager – head coach – assistant coach – international referee – FIVB accredited doctor – accredited journalist - 14 players

The teams must be accompanied compulsory by the international referee nominated by CAVB . A team, which has not referee in its delegation, will not be allowed to participate to the competition unless they pay all the expenses required to hire another referee from the nearest country.

Any team arrives after the technical meeting has no right to participate in the competition.

II – Foreign players

For the club competitions level; it is allowed to have Foreign players according to the following conditions:

- they must have a valid international transfer certificate.
- Each team has the right to have two foreign players, this limitation of the foreign player must respect the following principal: only one non-African player per club.
- The foreign players must be transferred to the new club at least three months before the beginning of this competition.
- The foreign players must participate in the local competition in the country of their new club; at least three score sheets of the competition, which, the foreign players participated on it must be presented to the control Committee during the primary Enquiry.
- The two foreign players are allowed to exist on score sheet and on the playing court.

III - Financial conditions of the participation:

1. The participating teams pay a sum of 1000 US$ to CAVB as participating fees. In case of non-payment of this fee by a team, this one will not participate to the championship.
2. The participating teams pay to the organizer (Federation) the amount of fifty US$ (50 US$) per day for each member of the delegation (up to 18 persons) including the international referee accompanies the team.

3. In case of early arrival or late departure and for any other people exceeding the contingent of eighteen, the participating expenses will amount to seventy five US$ (75 US$) per day and per person.
4. The team, which had foreign players, must pay 500 US$ for each player.
5. Any participating team to the competition, wearing advertising on their Jersey must pay to CAVB one thousand U.S dollars (1000 $) for each advertising
6. The team that withdraws during the championship will not refund his expenses 50 US$ per day for each member already paid to the organizer or to the CAVB.
7. Every team willing to change its residence will take in charge all these expenses; as well as fees due to the organizer (50 US$ a day and by person). This team will not refund lodging fees that were already paid to the organizer.

VI - UNFORESEEN ITEMS

As regards specific items not expressly foreseen in the present Regulations, reference is to be made to the CAVB competition regulations, constitution and FIVB regulations.